$20,000 DIAMONDS STOLEN.

Registered Mail Package Disappears From Cleveland Hotel. OLEVELAND, Nov. 27 .- Cleveland police and detectives to-day were working on the theft from the crowded lobby of a prominent hotel of a registered mat package containing diamonds valued at $20,000. Although the theft was committed last Friday evening no word of it became public until to-day, and then every effort was made by the police to teep the facts quiet.

It was learned, however, that the dia-It was learned, however, that the diamonds, said to be sixty-five in number and unset, were the property of the Yankauer, Newitter & Platt Jeweiry Company, at 170 Broadway, New York. The mail package containing the diamonds was sent to J. M. Yankauer, in this city, by one of his partners in Detroit. The package reached the hotel Friday. A boy was sent to page M. When Senator Wagner's attention was called to the fact that the Legislature is going to don't he present dry laws that they showed at the polits they worted for the people of New York changes in the present city always the publican, he said:

"That is perfectly true, but I don't ask heart and the public has a proportiated in the 1915 budget found time to send telegrams to Gov. This they be proported to the people in November cannot be denied. They voted for the people will not offer the present dipletion of the present dipletion o in Fourteenth street yesterday asserted that "hundreds and hundreds" of good jobs have been placed in the civil service class, and as a result there was wuch roaring and gnashing of teeth, as if were. One Tammany leader woefully stated that all but six jobs in the Finance Department have been recently made life jobs by being placed in the civil service class. When Comptroller Prendergast was first elected, this Tammany chieftain said, he was able to hand out between two and three hundred good jobs.

John.
Mr. Murphy was also at Tammany Hall yesterday, but he grimly declined to comment on the report that hundreds of good jobs have been denied Tammany by the civil service regulations.
"What do you want for yourself?" he was asked. "Fresh air," he said.

"Are you looking for any job?"
"I've got a job right here," this time

"I've got a job right here," this time with a grin.
"Are all these people here job hunters?" asked the interviewer, indicating a big crowd of the "faithful" who were waiting patiently for a word with the "Chief."
"Not at all," responded Mr. Murphy, this time grinning broadly. "Not a man here would take a job. They are all patriots," and he almost laughed out loud.

WON'T CHANGE RULES.

ALBANT, Nov. 27. - The State Civil Service Commission has deferred action on the amendment to New York City Civil Service rules, changing the classifica-tion of municipal court clerks from the exempt to the competitive schedule. It takes the ground that this is an in-opportune time to amend the rules.
